PROMOTE
Future Sales

Encourage your existing customers to buy more products by including a coupon with every order

Create a flyer or printed coupon to add to your shipments and let customers know about upcoming sales, discounts, and promotions

Shoppers look for coupons before they make a purchase

CREATE A Home Shipping Station

Product inventory, shipping supplies & packing materials can create a lot of clutter

Store product, boxes, tape, bubble wrap and promotional materials within easy reach to significantly reduce your shipping time and increase your order accuracy

Searching for shipping supplies can quickly eat up your time

The solution is to set up an organized space dedicated to shipping

SHIP Orders ASAP

Prepare to meet consumer demands for fast deliveries

Slower deliveries are highly likely to dissatisfy your customer

Ship.com shipping software, discounted shipping rates, free shipping supplies, a memorable unboxing experience, coupons for future sales and a shipping station will all help you get your orders out the door as quickly as possible.
